

Local and Personal

- A. A. Blankinship is improving his resi-
- R. C. Dryden, of Dawson, was here over Sunday.
- C. C. Hancock, of Dalhart, was a visisor Tuesday.

The ghost walked for the school teachers last Monday.

Wm. Troup is building an additon to

J. S. Richmond, Trinidad, spent Sunday in Tucumcari.

The school boys, the Juniors, played ball Thursday afternoon.

Gross Kelly & Co. are going to ship 4,000 lambs to jones, Mich.

Joe Israel and family have raturned from Colorado Springs.

Morgan & Grubbs are painting the wainscoating of their Saloon.

W. L. Foxworth, of Dawson, was a guest of the Glenrock, Saturday.

Rev. French will occupy the pulpit tomorrow at the Methodist Church. G. E. Moore is buying the lot and build-

- ing he is occupying on main street.
- J. E. Hannan, the insurance man of Albuquerque, was in town a day or two.
- S. N. Brewer is taking the ranks of Knighthood in the local order of K. of P.

Judge Long, of Las Vegas, called on the News force, while on a business visit here.

A catalogue and course of study will be issued for the public school in a short time.

S. F. Churchhill, manager of Ilfeld & Co., sheep interest, was in town a day or

Billie Wolf, representing Rothchilds Co., hats, was here calling on business

J. A. Street bought a wagon load of fat hogs from Mr. Walker of Endee Wednesday.

E. Gordon, engineer, R. W. Goudy, of Alamogordo, were at the Glenrock, Tues-

Don't fail to read the ads in the News and avail yourself of the information they

N. A. Spence, Chicago, representing Farwell, was a guest of the Glenrock Sun-

B. Church representing Herbert, Spencer Bartlett, interviewed the trade here

J. W. Stewart, with the E. P. & S. W. at Alamogordo, spent a day or two in Tu-

G. A. Moore is painting and preparing his restaurant and will open it again in a

There was a game at Tennis among some of our prominent society people

Sylvano Baca, sheepman, Endee, was here recently looking for some bucks for his ranch.

Capt. McMurray, former Capt. of Texas Rangers, was here representing F. Grab-

Mrs. Ino. Lawson is recovering from a serious illness daughter.

James Sanchez, one of our prominent sheepmen, was an appreciated visitor to this office.

Ed. Ellis, the drayman, is building a new cottage on the south side of the city, near the court house.

The family of M. H. Koch, the photogtage just south of the gallery.

O. E Cobb, M. Dalbey and G. C. Coaley, all of Dawson, were at the Plaza, Saturday and Sanday.

Thomas Linsley representing Weitheirn, Swartz & Co., boots and shoes, St. Louis, was a business visitor.

- A. D. Phillips, fireman on the Dawson, was off duty for a few days this week on account a sprained rist.
- C. V. Robinson, with the E. P. & S. W. at Dawson, was among the guests at the Glenrock, Wednesday.
- R. L. Patterson, Prop. of the Phoenix barber shop, is looking after business interests in Stratford, Texas.

Mrs. W. R. Ridley came in Monday night from Raton, where she had been visiting during the summer.

Hieroltzer, representing the National Packing Co., of Hutchison, Kan., was a business visitor Thursday.

The school bags given away this week at M. B. Goldenberg Co's, are making the school boys and girls happy.

J. J. McCourt, with Armour Packing Company, traveling out of El Paso, was a business visitor here Monday.

John Hughes, a prominent stockman of the east end of the county was a business visitor to Tucumcari, Monday.

The Baptist Church revival was well patronized. Rev. Reece is now out of town conducting another meeting.

Alex, D. Goldenberg and John Whitmore, merchants, went to Albuquerque to attend the Grand Lodge of Masons.

Cards are out announcing the wedding of Benito Baca and Miss Ethel Hodges, very prominent young people of this city.

Ernest Langston received the Grand Lodge appointment as District Deputy G C. for the Knight Lodge of this city.

S. C. Pandolfo is just finishing a threeroom cottage near the school house. Carpenter Joe Galbreath was the builder.

Hon. M. Rudulph, County Superintend ent of schools, of Alamocitas, was here looking after business matters, Monday.

Charles Kohn, of the firm of Kohn Brothers, general merchants of Montoya, and his mother spent a day or two in town.

- S. C. Pandolfo was in town a few hours, and hastened back to El Paso where he is opening an insurance business.
- M. B Fowler has just finished an addition to his bottling works plant. He is preparing for a larger business next sum-
- J. A. Street, sheriff, rode the goat the third heat in the K. of P. Lodge last Wednesday night. There was nothing sensational happened.

Agent Hargis is just finishing a handsome four-room residence in the east end of the city. It is a stone structure and makef a very pretty home.

Our gents furnishing line can't be beat in this section of N. Mex. Satisfaction guaranteed or your money refunded. We lead and others follow.

The M. B. Goldenberg Co.

Col. Theo. W. Heman has been afflicted of a heavy cold for several days, but is getting the better of it, and will be himself again in a day or two.

Sheriff Street deals with the six shooter people in a summary manner. He does not hold to the theory that six shooters and civilization go together.

The M. B. Goldenberg Co. shipped a few days ago 8,000 head of sheep, lambs 5,000 and 3,000 ewes, sold to Kulp Bros., rapher, has arrived from White Oaks, and Kansas City buyers, sold some and will have moved into the neat little white cot- feed the balance. The price is private but is good.

LEAN

Coney Island Bar and Cafe

Treatment Good, Good Wines,

Liquors and Cigars,

JAMES LANIGAN.

Proprietor

SMEAD'S Restaurant and Bakery.

We solicit a share of your patronage.

REGULAR MEALS, - 25 CENTS.

The best of everything the market affords. FULL LINE OF BREAD, PIES AND CAKES.

FRESH OYSTERS IN SEASON.

Phone 34.

1905

Season

1906

Butters-In Membership

Transferable

Any person reading this card may without doubt or hesitation butt into the Lobby Saloon and sample our fine line of Wines, Liquors and Cigars.

HENRY & CO., Tucumcari, N.M.

White Elephant Saloon.

Kentucky Whiskies. TRY THEM

A. B. DAVBER.

A. D. GOLDENBERG, PRES.

E. L. TAYLOR, SUPT.

TUCUMCARI

(INCORPORATED.)

Every enterprising citizen should patronize a local industry or enterprise.

WE ARE HERE TO STAY, AND SOLICIT YOUR PATRONAGE.

OUR RATES REASONABLE.